Temperance Meetings.

That the temperance cause finds avor with many was evidenced last Friday evening by the large and attentive audience that assembled in College Hall. Prof. G. W. Banks presided. Excellent addresses were delivered by Rev. H. C. McDaniel and Rev. Charles Ghiselin, and appropriate music was rendered by a selected choir. Rev. Geo. G. Everhart also read two selections with great effect. Another meeting was announced for Thursday evening, March 6th, at 7 o'clock, in the same place.

A meeting was also held in the colored M. E. Church last Thursday evening in furtherance of the temperance cause. The pastor, Rev. A. W. Brown, made an address, as did also Mr. John H. Hill, principal of the colored school. A number of white gentleman were also present, and short speeches were made by Rev. J. R. Van Horn, Rev. H. C. McDaniel. and Messrs, H. L. Hout and E. I.

On Friday of last week Constable Hensel of Falling Waters District arrested and lodged in jail Mr. Abram two wives at the same time. Mont gomery is a man said to possess very little intellect and less moral sensibilities. He came to this county from the vicinity of Winchester several years ago, leaving behind him his lawful wife. During last summer he was again married to a lady of the vicinity of Darkeeville in this county. All went well until the father of the second wife learned of the existence of wife No. one, when he proceeded, without more ado, to enforce the law. Montgomery, hearing of this, left the State, but, venturing back last week to see his last wife, was caught by the still have a great deal of Clothing on hand which must be sold. Our business this fall

OVERCOATS. We have made up our minds not to carry over one Overcoat-that is, if low prices wi sell them. We do not and will not allow any Clothiers in this country to undersell us. We are cash men, never known to buy otherwise, and when we go to the market we get all advantages, and in many instances we have been known to sell below what our competttors were compelled to pay on account of buying on time. We attend all big sales and being big buyers we have advantage over our small compatitors. We say small because we sell three times the amount of goods sold by any other clothing house in our city. Don't forget-we carry a full line of Trunks, Valises, Hats, Caps, Silk and Fur and decidedly the leaders in GENTS' FUR-NISHINGS. Call and see us, and we will Prove to you that you never dreamt the such a thing was possible-the low price Clothing is selling at.
